

No. 180 THE BUFFALO DANCE
OF THE PUEBLO INDIANS

This dance is very colorful and interesting and done according to ancient Indian lore by all tribes of Pueblo Indians—the Hopi, San Juan, Santa Clara, Taos and all tribes of the Rio Grande. Genuine Buffalo heads and skins form part of the costume.

Dear Yuri

Hi! The trip down was nice. We saw our dad yesterday + today + it was certainly sad. He seemed so well. He's taking everything as a matter of fact. The city is old + unique. We just enjoyed a delicious Mexican meal. Wish you were here.
