Dear Mr. and Mrs. R. Iaukada:

We have been very negligent in written to you for long time. Thank you for your kind of the nice wedding picture received few days ago, we are very glad to see you both, and it is greatly appreciated.

We most saying to Congratulation to you both and any greater happiness than you have already found to day, we hoping you are best healthy and good married life at the last ever.

How is the weather over there as very cold or snowing?

We have here already winter but not so much cold to compare than last winter, Of course we must expected more cold weather are coming next few months.

The Ban is lifted to go west coast. Are you folks intending to go back there? Some people return to their own place.

I had a notice from bank in the Oakland, they said to me about the safe deposit box business in there.

It is contrary to the bank rules for us to keep safe deposit key in our control, and I should like to

to clear this matter as soon as possible.))

So you see people over there is how feeling to us,
Of course we are not citizen.

Well, this is about all now. Wishing you and
Mr. Tsukada a very happy and sincere New Year,
I hope you could understand my poor English letter.

Sincerely yours

Mr + Mrs. Senda
