Dear Friends,

It just dawned on me that I never thanked you personally
for the very beautiful
roses you sent to me
in the hospital when
the baby arrived.
What a busy life it

has been since then.
But every minute is filled with happiness
when there is a baby
in the house. Carl is growing so rapidly.
Would you come and
see him, and us too?
We speak of you
often and would enjoy

very much a visit with you. How about it? Just give us a phone call to make sure we're home.
We hope you
had a wonderful Christmas — your first
one as husband and wife! And our best wishes to you both

in this New Year.

I certainly did
appreciate the flowers
and they brightened
my room for many days. Thanks just loads.

Sincerely,

Ruth Nolan.
(Mrs. J. E.)
