Dear Yuri,

Thanks for the Cuts Card! Whoever told you I was "indisposed" (I hate that word, don't you?) was a master of understatement - any I was feeling as though I wanted to die in reality. You'll see when I tell you what happened - I had my tonsils out! Horribly! Though it sounds silly & stuff it really is a very painful operation - I didn't think I'd ever swallow or eat or talk again & for 10 days I was in agony. However, I'm feeling much better now, in fact I'll probably troop back to work tomorrow - Miss C. has been calling me up daily to find out how I was etc. - she drives me frantic at times. I've been roasting myself on the beach for the last couple of days - my doctor told me to get all the sun I could so I'm taking him at his word.

Gosh I bet you're lonely for Dick - how's he making out in his job - hunting? I was sorry to hear about your thesis you - hope you worked everything out satisfactorily tho.
What are you doing now? Please call me real soon at the B D any I'm dying to see you - maybe now you can get down to W'head for that day on the beach that we've been talking about for so long.

I have loads to tell you but I'd much rather say it than write it - so call me p.d.g.

Love,
Betty.
