Dear Yuri :

Just a little late but nevertheless,
Happy! Birthday! to You! I'd sing
it if I were within shouting distance
but I couldn't even send a telegram.

Well, I should write to Wak &
Dick too but the birthday of yours took priority. How did Wak like the trip down here? I hope she wasn't too tired when she got back.
It's too bad that she didn't stay in this town a little longer so that she could see the place and have some of its goodness seep in. I'm trying to sell you and Dick this town and also the third floor of this house.
This town is all right. Not as historical as Boston but very progressive.

Wak said she was going to write me a letter when she got back. We didn't get a chance to talk much. I couldn't quite get her trend of thought either.

Maybe if you have a little time you could write me a hint or two.

This time of year is very pleasant here. There are so many trees in full bloom - Cherries, Magnolias, & the Fruit trees. They are at there best since we have had no frost, wind storm or heavy rain. They are just perfect. This week is probably the best around here. If you people have a vacation and want the sea - we are very close to the Long Island Sound. One can

2. rent a boat to go fishing or just pleasure riding. Go the other way to the forest - sort of sparse.

I haven't heard anything from my draft board but am inquiring about changing my job. I don't agree with the boss. He isn't such a gentleman at all and I'm not the only one that thinks that way. I'm sort of used to him now and don't let him effect me too much but it isn't pleasant at all.

Homer Homada told me that Mas Hoshino is as taken his pre induction Physical.

Gosh! if you can't read my writing, its because I haven't written one for such a long time.

And about the contest. I was one of some 950 contestants and one of the many who did not receive any prize. Gosh! And I thought so much of it too. Well, there is going to be another contest by General Motors. I'm going to enter this one too. Just wait if I keep entering enough of them, I will win a prize of some kind sooner or later.

Until then - well that may be too long - I'll write again.

Sincerely,

Kan
