Dear Yuri + Waka.

You certainly made it nice for us. Thank you so much. I hope your having a more restful time of it now. Coming back to New York is a harsh return to reality. Only everything looks bigger than ever.

When you come to NY by all means fly by a clear night. It's most luxurious and the stars and the bright lights ^{below} will positively thrill you. We thought the trip much too short.

Margaret will be back to work next week and I'll be home wishing I were basking on the sands of Provincetown and enjoying some of your wonderful chow mein.

Thanks so much for your hospitality. And you will promise to come and visit us, please?

Love

Iku
