Dearest Yuri,

Had the dept. store send off a silly little package to you. I ain't much good for much so I'm sending this box of sweets.

In the rush and events of things I forgot that this Sunday is Easter. We're all reaching you late but we wish you the best of everything.

Darling, I'm getting a nervous break down - I lost your vital statistics. Mr. Clapp wants it badly - only this me. Especially the part that sez. Birthday. Please rush.

Love,
Dick

P.S. Your airmails reach me in 2 or 2½ days.
Keep in flying.

Dearest John

That the apt. here was off a little better package to you. I'm much obliged for much as I'm sending this box of notes.

In the next one notes of things I forget that this bundle is better. We are reaching you late but we must give the best of my things.

Looking in getting a review back soon - I had your letter at once. Mr. Webb wants to help off this one. Especially the part that of. I'm sorry. I'm sure.

John
