

TRANS. OFF

Mrs. Yuko Inukada
13 Parkman St.
Boston 14 Mass.

Monday
July 23rd.

Yours dear,

Found your grand letter waiting for me after getting "home." Good gosh, no, darling, please do not send any letters to Ateco as much as I'd want it there — You are always very close on my throat and heart, everywhere, including the office. I do not want to let slip a, "yes, honey!" to the boss instead of a "no!"

Honey, your diagnosis about my new sign is not quite right. You see, the sign is wired to my heart so it goes on and off in synchronizing with the pulse.

I was consulting the calendar tonight and there are two swell times in September. (1) Labor Day and (2) our Anniversary. We could get together on Labor Day holiday easily. I am thinking of asking my B<sub>—</sub> in the near future whether I might take Monday off for sundry reasons. I won't come down this weekend honey. Sat & Sun 28-29. Dick would like to be with you on the 5th of August but I think that 2 week-ends in the row would be too drastic to your program. So, honey, on my part we can make it definite to get together during Labor Day holidays and our Anniversary.

Between then and now, I think I will let you make the program to suit. OK? I miss you.

You can keep the P.C., it would lie around here and get messed up. But, you can send the memorable tea leaf strainer. We use the same tea pot and we all get a generous mouthful of leaves and just need the strainer again.

I now have a room mate. Hide Masuda - used to work in Engineer office with Ken, is visiting and he shares the room and the low bed.

Today, I received the War Bond here. Do not worry if none are sent there - I asked the Finance officer to forward <sup>them</sup> ~~it~~ here.

See, honey, sitting around by the table with everybody sitting around makes it hard for me to say just the things I want to say and feel. Especially now that I have a room mate
I cannot jump into the bed and moon.

Monday at office was not exciting. Caught my own mistake in figuring and added extra work for the secretary. He's pretty nice and a hard worker.

Am looking forward to getting the album room. Haven't heard an answer from Masao yet, so I guess he is working on it.

This is about all for now honey, all my love and we

lick
