

TRANS. C

3c 3c

Mrs. Yumbo Zukade
13 Parkman St
Boston 14, Mass.

Sunday 12:30 P.M.

Yours Dearest.

I am terribly sorry that you did not get a letter yesterday. I was a bit tired Friday and Saturday nights and took to bed early.

Today was spent in patching the cracks and holes in the kitchen + bathroom walls. When the plaster dries the two rooms will be ready to paint. The real, live anticipation of your coming soon spurred me on and I could almost feel your presence around me. The rooms are shabby but the windows seem to have gay curtains. The rooms are furnished, a rug, a radio, book case, shelves - and you - I imagine as I worked.

At this rate, your husband shall be able to escort his queen into our castle in the air.

The reason why I am so late tonight is that I went to a movie and just came back. I feel very much wide awake and very much in love with my lovely wife and would like to spend a good long letter

12.20.21
to make up for her negligence.

I saw "Com is Green." Very dramatic but as you said - overacted in many parts.
I missed your presence in that is partly the reason for my not enjoying the picture so much.

Darling, please write to Max concerning the details about the furniture. Since your plan is to leave them with him I think you should ask whether he wants them here or not.

As for the gifts - In Jimmy 5<sup>00</sup> and up.
For Alice a couple dollars or so. In upstairs it can wait until you get down here. Is that alright, honey?

Friday is the long day at the store. We close at 8:30 - I got in at 10:00 and didn't have any time to do anything but read the paper and go to bed.

I think I get Thursday off so far because everybody works Friday and Saturday. I don't mind it except that it makes it hard for Sally to keep my dinner warm. I should be able to do something about it soon.

Honey, I'm afraid that my mind isn't on my work but on you and my plans to set up my own business - such as thinking about the name for the company, letter head style, color code etc. I was thinking of "Far East Traders Inc. Asiatic Traders Inc., Asia Trade Company, East Asia Trading Company. Which one do you like the best? How about your ideas?

Darling, I should have assumed you but it slipped my mind - about the telephone - I can't think of any way to get in touch with me yet. The neighbors aren't too friendly. The best bet would be to get one ourselves but by then you'll be down here.

Ah ah. The match say 1:30 A.M. so good night dear -

Wishing that you could come down during the holidays -

Your Clark