

Mrs. Yukio Takeda

13 Parkman St.

Boston 14, Mass.

STATION

Monday 17th.

Darling.

Had one sweet day at my new place today. The combination of Jewish holiday and all-day driving rain kept the 2 man store very quiet.

I like the set-up very much because I can experiment with the produce dept. to my heart's content. The produce dept. however, to use my word I don't like "cute".

I'm more concerned about our Anniversary together. The mgr. wants me to work this week. Monday is a busy day in produce and I can hardly take it off because the outfit lacks experienced workers in this dept. What to do! I'll sleep on the problem tonight and maybe I'll get some solution by tomorrow.

The temperature dropped down to around 55° today and it is quite cold. Feel a draft in the room and I have a couple of extra comforters on me tonight.

Monday 15th

Had a couple of cups of coffee tonight just before coming up here and feel very wide awake - maybe I won't be able to sleep but its ok because I'll think about all the nice things about you + Richard!

Honey, I'm anxious to know what is cooking up there since you went back. Was hoping to get a letter today.

Love you - Hope all is O.K.

Sincerely,
Dick

Dick