Monday Note

Darling,

Am practically sitting on my hands to keep from getting fidgety.

Was with you at 11 AM. I think I was as nervous as a husband pacing the floor in front of the delivery room. "It's all right, Dick, every thing all right" - but still, I was nervous Thurg. quick let me know the result of almost 13 months of study - labor pains!

Received your letter today, darling.
Talking person to person is nice but getting a letter is very nice too darling.
But letter yet and heaven it is to have you right here with me. The beds are shoved together and your side looks mighty empty and lonely for your company.

Monday at work was alright.

Hammed if the people aren't a truly friendly. See a number of new faces every day. Hope it keeps up because I should increase the sales volume more.

It was pretty cold all day. The store isn't heated and we feel the draft very much.

Dormite honey. I guess I could survive a week of waiting but not much more.

For being a good girl. "45"4"

Dick
