Wednesday note

Dear Jim: Guess this is the last time I'll address an envelope to you using a Miss. The news about you & Dick's plans somehow didn't surprise me — maybe it's telepathy and then again maybe it's simply about time. I don't know. Hardly think it's necessary for me to write an elaborate essay on how I feel or think about it — you already know. Dick's a small guy and will certainly be a nice sort of person to have around permanently.

My blessings to both of you
None
Dally.
