

Nakamura Mitsuko

EA-80-344

P.O. Box 788

Crystal City, Texas

Mr & Mrs Richard H. Leucoda
12 Parkman Street
Boston 14
Mass.

Crystal City, Texas
October 13, 1944

Dear Yuri ^{and} Dick

Congratulations and a million best wishes to you both. I was waiting for the Big Event to take place for quite some time so I should have taken the news calmly, but when I received your ~~news~~ announcement I was so excited I don't know how I got the dishes done.

I'm very happy for you both and I would have been blue and angry if you hadn't sent me an announcement. Since you're very understanding about my present financial situation (which is quite an embarrassing subject) I shall wait until the war ends to get something for the Honeymoon Cottage. You see, I'm quite optimistic about the future.

I am alive and as noisier as ever. My Dad thinks I'm an escaped inmate

DETAINED ALIEN
ENEMY MAIL
XAMINED
BY 28-9
U. S. I. & N. S.

of a state institution at times. I always believe in making the best of everything, even if it's trying to live in an internment camp. Happiness is only what one wishes it to be. I believe one can be happy under any circumstance if he so desires. Don't worry about me, 'cause I'm getting along very well. Of course, I prefer living in a big city with all the conveniences of modern times, but shucks, this is war. I guess you can see that I don't let things bother me. Maybe I'm too stupid to know better. Ignorance is bliss!!

My regards to Wak. It must be swell to have sisters. Write if and when you can find a few moments to spare from each other.

Love

Mutsutsu

