To wish you not just skies of blue
And cloudless sunny weather, But all the joy and love that comes From sharing life together;
Sharing understandingly
The dark days and the fair
Well knowing future days will hold Still deeper joys to share.

My dear Yuri:

Your wedding
announcement
was a joy for I surmised there
was something in the air.

I am hoping you can keep
on with your Professional
work, and that

1940

this Global war
will let you
and Mr. Luskada
have your lives
together from the very first.

Your associates
here join me
in an affectionate
greeting and God Bless you both.
Sincerely
Para Power
