Dear Mrs Lou Koda,

What a delightful little packet!
I am so glad to have these photos of the proceeds at the school and my dear W. G. H associates whom I miss very much.

I have often wondered how life was going
with you in New York. I shall always be interested. One of the greatest joys
and satisfactions
of the years has been watching able

young people from the ability - as their native capacity - their hands to the various teaching and teaching of responsibility.
One of the joys of teaching is that you are sure of things and they will be the same for you. I am ever

I have wondered

with you in New York. I shall always
the greatest joys
and joys factors
of the year has been watching able

young people grow in ability as their native capacity responds to professional training and acceptance of responsibility.
And you are one of those.
My very best wishes always
