

Miss Mine Okubo

Mr. & Mrs. P. Tsubota

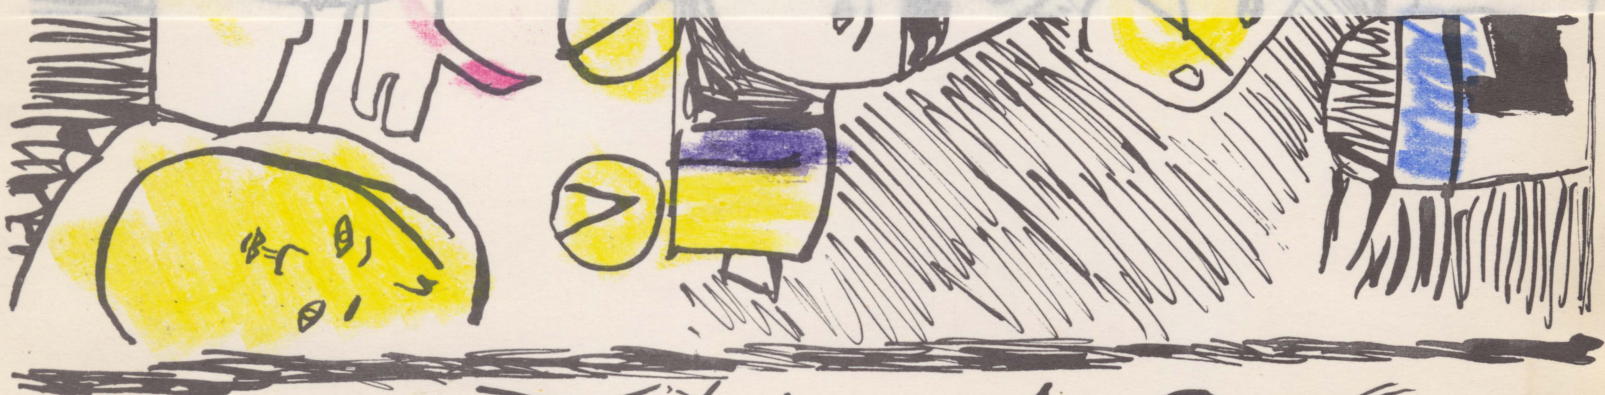

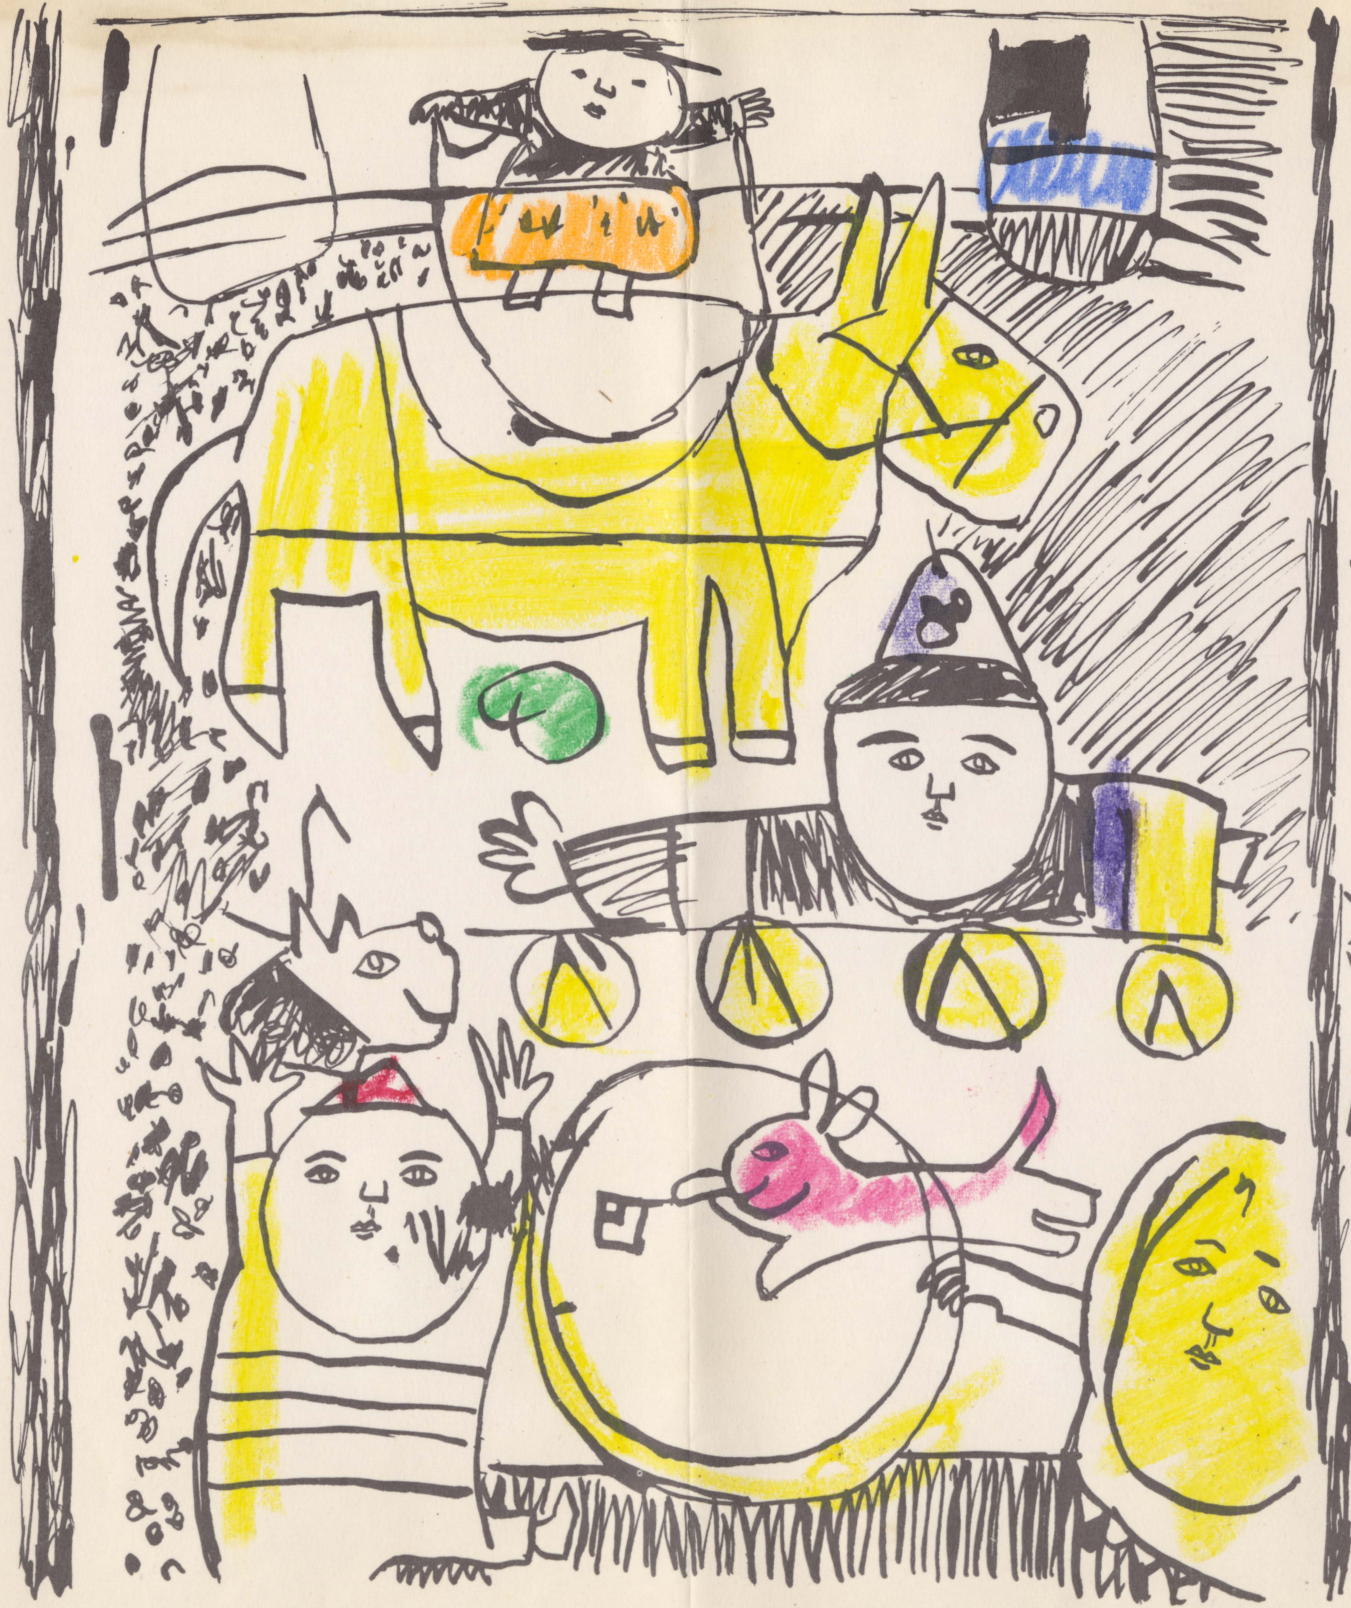

In my long search for my own true identity and own symbols of expression, and to master drawing, color, and craft, I went the whole circuit, from West to East, to my own ancestry and back to the work of a Japanese child. My work is all mine and all my own - beautiful in color and full of joy and humor. It won't be long before I surprise the world.

Hopes all goes well with the Tsubotas.

Happy 1965.
