Dear Yui

Nov 26th

Thank you for coffee and muffins. It was fun. My mind & time went back to Berkeley days.
Really, it was as if all the years & things in between didn't take place and I was talking to you & me as of our young days. One cannot talk like that to many people because they have become self-conscious & happy & they don't know. It's nice when one recognizes & knows people & life and can talk about anything with the recognition that all is S — & each person is an individual.

It is awful all those dirty traveler people all the way down into subway sleep, I everywhere — Honor all. I should talk. I may soon be there too.

a. Good Dec.
