

Dear Gene:

Sent 18, 1998

It is late for the regular publishing companies but Mr. Nobu Yamabuchi of Robert Inc. said he could print the book-gift for the Christmas Trade if I gathered enough letters of commitment with orders for so many books from people and organizations. The book will sell for approximately $20.00. To make this simple keep order: 50 or more.

I think once the book is printed and distributed it will go over big like the jet rock and the Cabbage patch doll for the drawings and story is about the condition of the times and people can read themselves in the story.

If interested and wish to make "Jungle, Jungle Jungle" a reality please send letter of commitment as soon as possible to me so I can send to Robert Inc.

If you know of organizations interested relay the information.

Thank you.

Sincerely,
Mimi Okabe
