All road
 alone ^{challenge} but Am prepared eventually I will fight on by taking control
 Hope this is okay

Dear Yuri

My long research in painting is over and I have my own art now so I can take control of my life and work.

Art and life is one and the same. In the top inner vision beauty art everything returns to universal Truth and it is to find self and ones own writings.

The highest perfection and integrity in painting is in the realm of science and the sensitive and the Mastery is in drawing, color and craft. Taking each to its simplest possible usage.

I am weary but fighting on. My generation gone and the world sick but one still must travel on in hope.

Sincerely,
 Anne Apple
