Zak however says Muggie is still a bit adverse to Maia for what she did last semester but I don't blame Muggie at all + yet it is a difficult situation at times.

don't want to tell Kan - Some of the fellows were very rude when Q. Also was talking. but well - I must learn to keep my mouth shut but gee they haven't had as much experience.

loves words, but does not improve, I can do nothing.

Up about 7:30 - Since no work it wasn't at all bad so washed my hair. Since Kan went to the Jach mtg. at Concord we didn't go to the cemetery. The work drove the slightly frightened uncle back on the truck. - Senda's came.

Read several magazine stories after a nap but they seemed a bit unsatisfactory after reading books, plays + articles of work three months ago - the last time I wrote in you - In spite of all my efforts to be faithful - Just another try again.

RULES FOR SPELLING

Words ending in e drop that letter before the termination able, as in move, movable, unless ending in ce or ge, when it is retained, as in change, changeable, etc.

Words of one syllable ending in a consonant, with a single vowel before it double that consonant in derivatives, as ship, shipping, etc. But if ending in a consonant with a double vowel before it, they do not double the consonant in derivatives; as troop, trooper, etc.

Words of more than one syllable ending in a consonant preceded by a single vowel, and accented on the last syllable, double that consonant in derivatives; as commit, committed; but except chagrin, chagrined.

All words of one syllable ending in l, with a single vowel before it, have double ll at the close; as mill, sell.

All words of one syllable ending in l, with a double vowel before it, have only one l at the close as mail, sail.

The words foretell, distill, instill and fulfill retain the double l of their primitives. Derivatives of dull, skill, will and full also retain the ll when the accent falls on these words; as dullness, skillful, willful, fullness.

Words of more than one syllable ending in l have only one l at the close; as delightful, faithful; unless the accent falls on the last syllable; as in befall, etc.

Words ending in l, double that letter in the termination ly.

Participle ending in ing, from verbs ending in e, lose the final e; as have, having; make, making, etc.; but verbs ending in ee retain both; see, seeing. Dye, to color, and singe, to scorch, however, must retain the e before ing.

All adverbs ending in ly and nouns ending in ment retain the e final of the primitives; as brave, bravely; refine, refinement; except words ending in ge; as judge, judgment.

Nouns ending in y, preceded by a vowel, form their plural by adding s; as money, moneys; but if y is preceded by a consonant, it is changed to ies in the plural; as bounty, bounties.

Words whose primitives end in y change the y into i; as beauty, beautiful.

WHAT TO DO IN CASE OF ACCIDENT

DROWNING. 1. Loosen clothing, if any. 2. Empty lungs of water by laying body on its stomach and lifting it by the middle so that the head hangs down. Jerk the body a few times. 3. Pull tongue forward, using handkerchief, or pin with string, if necessary. 4. Imitate motion of respiration by alternately compressing and expanding the lower ribs, about twenty times a minute. Alternately rising and lowering the arms from the sides up above the head will stimulate the action of the lungs. Let it be done gently but persistently. 5. Apply warmth and friction to extremities. 6. By holding tongue forward, closing the nostrils and pressing the "Adams' apple" back (so as to close entrance to stomach), direct inflation may be tried. Take a deep breath and breathe it forcibly into the mouth of patient, compress the chest to expel the air, and repeat the operation. 7. DON'T GIVE UP! People have been saved after hours of patient, vigorous effort. 8. When breathing begins, get patient into a warm bed, give warm drinks, or spirits in teaspoonfuls, fresh air and quiet.

BURNS AND SCALDS. Cover with cooking soda and lay wet cloths over it. White of eggs and olive oil. Olive or linseed oil, plain or mixed with chalk or whiting.

LIGHTNING. Dash cold water over person struck.

SUNSTROKE. Loosen clothing. Get patient into shade, and apply ice cold water to head.

MAD DOG OR SNAKE BITE. Tie cord tight above wound. Suck the wound and cauterize with caustic or white-hot iron at once, or cut out adjoining parts with a sharp knife.

VENOMOUS INSECTS' STINGS etc. Apply weak ammonia, oil, salt water, or iodine.

FAINING. Place flat on back; allow fresh air and sprinkle with water.

BLEEDING FROM WOUND. If from an artery, stop the current of blood to the wound by putting a compress or cloth pad over the artery. Fasten it firmly by a handkerchief or bandage, which may be tightened by twisting in a stick as a binder. The location of the artery can generally be determined by the throbbing sensation. If from a vein, apply pressure directly over the wound or by exposure or application of cold water. Perchloride of Iron may be applied with cloth or lint. Keep the part elevated.

POISONS

GENERAL DIRECTIONS. Give an emetic as soon as possible; tablespoonful of powdered mustard in a tumbler of warm water, or twenty grains of ipecac; after vomiting, give freely of warm drinks.

SPECIAL DIRECTIONS. In case of poisoning from Arsenic, Corrosive Sublimate, Verdigris, Blue Vitriol, and from Vegetables kept in copper vessels; give emetic and white of egg, sweet oil and milk.

SUGAR OF LEAD. Give emetic and epsom salt.

Hemlock, Aconite, Belladonna and Fox Glove. Give emetic, then tannin and stimulants.

Opium, Laudanum and Morphine. Give an emetic, follow with strong coffee or white of an egg. Keep patient walking two or three hours, and extremities warm.

My CALENDAR OF MEMORIES

for 1941

Why CALENDAR OF MEMORY

for 1941

This is your Calendar of Memory for 1941

WEDNESDAY	THURSDAY
1 New Year's Day Bob's Birthday	2 Fred & Min's Anniversary
8 Send apology Card to Aunt Jane	9 Jim's Birthday

HOW TO USE IT — Fill in under the proper dates as shown the names of all those whose Birthdays and Anniversaries should be remembered throughout the year.

Then cultivate the habit of referring to it every Sunday; make a record of the cards required for the week, and you will always remember those special days that mean so much to your relatives and friends.

Also, add from time to time the names of others as you learn their Birthday and Anniversary dates. A card of good wishes is always appreciated on these days and other occasions so important to them. Then, too, you will have the satisfaction of knowing that you remembered to remember.

The charm of Christmas lies in the thought that we live in the memory of our friends.

TO AVOID LOSS AND DISAPPOINTMENT

be careful to

ADDRESS YOUR GREETING CARDS CORRECTLY

Street addresses are very important, especially in large cities. When they are omitted the delivery is delayed from one to three days. This applies not only to Christmas cards, but to Valentines, Easter Greetings and other cards.

TO ASSURE PROMPT DELIVERY — CHECK THE ADDRESSES CAREFULLY BEFORE MAILING.

For Your Convenience

we plan to distribute this attractive and useful CALENDAR OF MEMORY from year to year. Our supply is limited, however, so we suggest you call in December for your copy.
