BRIDE

NORMA THORPE, MACKENZIE CANTIN ARE WEDDED

AT A LOVELY candlelight ceremony Wednesday evening in St. Paul's Episcopal Church of Berkeley, Miss Norma Thorpe became the bride of Mr. A. Mackenzie Cantin.

Large white chrysanthemums and many branched candlebra holding white candles decorated the altar. Baskets of white flowers stood at either side of the center aisle and dainty flower arrangements hung from the pillars.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, Mr. Harry E. Thorpe. She wore a white satin gown in princess style with a court train. The sleeves of the dress were closely fitted from the wrists to the elbow and were fastened with a row of covered buttons. The shoulders were puffed and the high neck was finished in a cowl, the covered buttons being repeated at the back of the neck. A narrow satin sash from which hung long silk tassles was tied in front.

Exchange of Vows Made at Afternoon Ceremony

ALL WHITE WAS the wedding of June Bischoff and Renald Louis Kocher, who exchanged their marriage vows last Sunday at a late afternoon ceremony in the First Christian Church with the Rev. W. P. Reagor officiating. White gladioli, combined with tall, white tapers set in candelabra, provided the simple but strikingly effective background for the bridal party.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, C. A. Bischoff, wore a gown of white net over heavy satin, ornamented with seed pearls, fashioned with a full skirt and long train. Her bridal veil of white lace was held by a coronet of orange blossoms and she carried a shower bouquet of white orchids, gardenias and stephanotis.

Marjorie Bischoff, her sister, and maid of honor, wore a frock of white marquisette with a picture hat of buttercup yellow. Her flowers were shaded yellow gladioli and pompom dahlias.

The bridesmaids, in gowns similar to the honor attendants, were Miss Phyllis Kocher, Miss Jean Nelson, Miss Peggy Farina, Miss Margarete Guild, Miss Margaret Taeger and Miss Ruth Swanson.

Jack Calderwood of Palo Alto was best man for the benedict, and the ushers were Edward Farina, Bill McWhirter, Harry Nelson, T. M. McDaniel, Jack Farley and Tate Coulthard.

Following a reception at the Claremont Hotel, the newlyweds left for a honeymoon to be spent at Lake Tahoe. Upon their return, they will reside in Oakland.

Mrs. Kocher is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Bischoff of Oakland. She was graduated from the University of California with the class of 1939 and a member of Alpha Chi Omega sorority.
