CAUTION

This passport is a valuable document. It must not be altered or mutilated in any manner. No stamps, statements, notations or other additions should be placed or made in this passport other than by officials of the United States or of foreign countries in connection with official matters. Due care should be taken to see that it does not pass into the possession of an unauthorized person. If it is lost or destroyed the fact and circumstances of the loss should be immediately reported to the Passport Division, Department of State, or to the nearest American Consulate, or, in an outlying possession of the United States, to the chief executive thereof, and to the local police authorities. New passports in such cases can be issued only after exhaustive inquiry.

ABSTRACTS FROM PASSPORT REGULATIONS

1. Passports are issued in the United States by the Secretary of State, through the Passport Division, Department of State, Washington, D. C. Applications for passports should be made in person through clerks of Federal courts, clerks of State courts having jurisdiction in naturalization matters, or through passport agents of the Department of State. Passport agents of the Department of State are stationed at New York, Boston, Chicago, San Francisco, and the Department of State, Washington, D. C. Applications should be filed from 2 to 4 weeks before the passport is required, depending upon the distance from Washington.

2. Persons in the Philippine Islands desiring passports should make application to the United States High Commissioner, Manila. In the Virgin Islands, Hawaii, Puerto Rico, Guam, and American Samoa application should be made to the chief executives of those islands.

3. The passport fee, including $1 for the execution of the application, is $10. The fee for renewal of a passport is $5. In the United States, passport and renewal fees should be submitted in currency or in postal money orders made payable to the Secretary of State, Washington, D. C.

4. The regulations provide that when the presumption of having ceased to be an American citizen has arisen against a naturalized American citizen under section 2 of the act of March 2, 1907, because of protracted foreign residence, his passport shall not be renewed until he shall have submitted to the Department of State or to a diplomatic or consular officer of the United States, evidence showing that the reason for such foreign residence comes within the rules prescribed by the Secretary of State whereunder such presumption may be overcome.

5. Americans making their homes or residing for a prolonged period abroad should register at the nearest American consulate.
