Dear Madam:

Your letter of November 5, 1942 has been referred to the Division of Bibliography for attention and report.

I am sorry to say that we have no copies of the reports of the Tolan Committee investigations on the west coast, or of the hearings of the same committee on the subject, for distribution. Copies may be purchased from the Superintendent of Documents, U. S. Government printing office, Washington, or it is possible that your Congressman might be able to furnish you with copies. We give below the exact titles of the Reports and Hearings, with price:

U.S. Congress. House. Select committee investigating national defense migration. National defense migration; Hearings, 77th Cong., 2d sess., pursuant to H. Res. 113, to inquire further into interstate migration of citizens...

Submitted by Mr. Tolan. 35 cents.

U.S. Congress. House. Select committee investigating national defense migration. National defense migration, report pursuant to H. Res. 113, to inquire further into interstate migration of citizens...: Preliminary report and recommendations on problems of evacuation of citizens and aliens from military areas. Washington, U. S. Govt. print, off., 1942. 33 p. (77th Cong., 2d sess. House. Rept. 1911) 10 cents.

Submitted by Mr. Sparkman.

We would also direct your attention especially to the September, 1942 issue of The Annals of The American Academy of Political and Social Science, which is devoted to the subject "Minority peoples in a nation at war". You will find two of the articles particularly helpful, one by S. F. Miyamoto, entitled "Immigrants and citizens of Japanese origin", p. 107-113, has bibliographical footnotes, and the other by E. V. Stonequist, entitled "Restricted citizen; discrimination against minorities; evacuation of Japanese-American citizens", p. 149-156. Single copies of The Annals may be secured by non-members of the Academy at $2.00 in paper, or $2.50 in cloth binding. The address of the Academy is 3457 Walnut Street, Philadelphia.
