

Dear Wife

Jan 27

How is the old gal! Are you still full of pep? Don't get any of that tough lesson from Bunny. — ~~but~~ have Harriet be your guardian #70 #9!

Well it is snowing to-day. have about 4 or 5 in on the ground. going to have a play to-night at High School Auditorium expect to go with the folks but guess it is going to be a tough going.

Folks a a little party last night about 1/3 of us ate <sup>had</sup> #22, <sup>120</sup> #23. soup, #47 3/4 3/4 oyster, quart of whisky seem they all had good time.

Hells of fire! I am getting tired of this camp. expect to leave here now day for Denver. Will be there I willk any way you can write or write me at Niki's place. % 528 Race St. the same place she use to work.

I wouldn't know where I will be but will keep in ~~contact~~ contac with ~~her~~ her until I leave. If you are too lonesome let me know will be back to you soon.
Don't worry about me now if you do and get thin I am going to disown you how do you like that.

Saw Pe. in camp yesterday he has been here for a month now. He was saying that he will be leaving Sunday but he might leave with me.

I don't know what kind of luck I am going to have in Denver but like to try any way. Did you write to that Oregon Cleaner that wanted to sell? Try to get the detail about it will you. I would like to know.

I can't talk the folks to leave they want to hang the fight for a while they say in camp that this Filipino Philippine ~~and~~ invasion is going to settle the problem so they are waiting for the outcome of it. To top this the news papers are raising you know those news about Japs getting hit and the house been burnt.

Well I will close now until next time
John

AFTER 5 DAYS, RETURN TO
