

Jan 30-45

Dear wife,

Its eight days now since I left Caldwell. How are you getting along. You know it might be a relief to get away from a boss but it sure is lonesome. While I am on a go. it is alright but when I am alone I don't know what to do. Large town is no good for me. Don't know any body and can't get acquainted. Of course this is my second day so what can I expect. one or nearly it is my first day in Denver that I spent.

Saw Mike today she is the same old thing but looks little fat now. she talked little about her marriage but I didn't say much. Had lunch at her boss's place. About 1 o'clock started calling the cleaners and got a job but don't know what it is going to be like. Don't know what the wages are or anything ^{else}.

Will try it for few days and see what I can do. Wonder if you can stand the loneliness for a while longer. or do you want me right back?

I had to go thru a lot of red tape to get this job. The U.S. employment is pretty tough.
They want all the manpower in essential work. which pays 70¢ hour for 3 months, ^{even more} that ~~would~~ wouldn't do me any good. because I can't stay away that long. even if you say I can stay that long.
Found out I am more babish than I thought I was.

I haven't cried yet but sure miss that cold feet. not that I like to have the cold feet but some body to play with Well, ^{tomorrow will be my} first day to work ~~at~~ so I can't be late. have to ride the street cars for about 60 or 65 blocks I guess. walked ~~so~~ so down much to-day that I am all in. Slept from 5.8 and ^{went out for bite to eat.} I am ~~not~~ going to hit the hay now. (11 PM)

I am doing very good, waiting to you even if I do I have to write off after and more?
But this is the best I can do so until tomorrow night Happy dreams to you dear.
Hubby.

1-31-

Was dreaming of you I guess because when I got up no you. Starting my first day. Wish me luck hun. Maybe I might be home before you get this letter.
Well it's 6 AM. You're going out for breakfast

AFTER 5 DAYS, RETURN TO
