Today at most classes, In American school I handed in my book since ~~this~~ today is last school study day for my last term in Freshman. In English we had a test in English but we didn't finished it.

November 23, 1944 Thuesday. Snow in afternoon

Today there is no American School because today is Thanksgiving Day. Ton omorrow were're suppose to go high School and get my Report card.

This moring I went to hospital, to get my percription for my eye. Dr. Okamura Otometry told me that I am near sightness. We found that out by binging something like wheel except it's black, with two hole to peep or look at. In the hole there a tunnel of glass of differance sye [size] which he kepted sight on revolving untill I could see good.

November 24, 1944. Friday.

Today after supper I went to see movie at block 6. The movie was called "You're Not so tought" Wead End Kid

I also wear my glasses so I could see better since I an near sight. They g;asses isn't my glass, and since. I see better, in movie; that's my reason glass. The glass came on afternoon's mail and my sister Miyoko went after for me. My father pay the glass when it came to post office.

The glass is rimless and little too small for me, but I think I could fit that if I go Otametric [optomatrist].

December 2, 1944 Saterdag

This afternoon, with my friend William to art exhibit at high school gym

The art are good, especially the camp's art. Most of the camp's picture are something to do with mountain near this camp. Mostly all the camo have something to do mountain and I especially admire the one which had seagull, which is so realistic that I can't tell it's real stuff.

December 3, 1944 Sunday clear

Today I went after the newspaper, the new paper which was Examiner, and Chronicle of San Fransico. The Examiner was sold out before it's my turn to buy.

December 4, 1944 Monday clear

It had been three year to now during that time we were move to relocation center before relocation center It was assemby center of Sacarmento. Now this relocation is call segeration center with it's unloyal people, to America is staying.

The past I know, but future unknown, since were unloyal to America, like some guys who went out to other camp, I don't known with country I'll be staying after war, maybe America, maybe Japan, who known [knows] maybe I'll be dead before this storm blow over.

When I heard the first new that Pearl Harbor was struck. I didn't even realize it'll change my way of living, the days that I went school next day after Pearl Harbor incident. I recall when some Mexican like guy said "Look at that dam Jap," I got boiling mad, as if I could boil egg in my mouth, I held my temper enough so gave a sock in the jaw, enough to knock his chin out, but he came up saying, "you dam Jap, you dammit Jap" he cuss at me again in Egypt. After movie I wait for friend but he wasn't there so I went byself [by myself].

Page 14

The movie was "Song of the Open Road." starring. Charle Mcharly ~~and~~, Edgar Bergamen, and Jane Powell.

December 25, 1944. Monday.

Today is christmas day and this is my third years in this camp.

This year's Christmas I didn't even get any presant from anybody.

I hope this is last Christmas I'll have in this camp.

December 26, 1944 Tuesday.

Today I found out that some people In this camp before the army take over this camp, are going out. I hear that there is hearing by army to find out if you loyal to America or not. I think this is a silly idea because the people who's in this camp are unloyal to America so they have to stay this long. The people in this and other block are saying that if your unloyal or not they made us go out if the past is clear.

December 27, 1944

Today when I was walking at hallway at high school I notice on that my name was on the notice and I was assign [assigned] to two study hall instead of one. This darn thing I thought and I even didn't take heel toward this.

Page 26

December 28, 1944

January 8, 1945 Monday.

There is nothing to say so I guess I better talk about school (American) today.

The school is mostly made out of wood and have a har covering on roof. The roofing is nothing but chimney sticking like a batterly of artillery. The school are heat by oil instead of coal like our home and I think oil is way better than coal, because I don't need to fire the ~~the stove~~ coal into the oil stove.

The school building are divide wings and in each wing there is about ten to fithteen rooms. There is eight wing ant [and] the rooms are is letter according too ahapelt [alphabet]

January 9, 1945
