Who's Who In The Cast

TOM HELMORE (Ben Jeffcoat) Tom Helmore of "My Fair Lady" fame is an English actor who made his Broadway debut in "No Time for Comedy," followed by "The Day Before Spring," "You Never Can Tell," "Clutterbuck," "Legend of Sarah," "The High Ground," "The Winner," "Debut," the above mentioned Shavian musical, and recently "Hilary" with Joan Fontaine.

JERI MIYAZAKI (Suzie Wong) Jeri Miyazaki makes her Broadway debut in this production. Born in California in a wartime internment camp for citizens of Japanese ancestry, she was brought to New York where she was educated. Her schooling took place at the Professional Children's School and George Washington High School. An agent who saw some of her modeling photographs sug-

JAMES OLSON (Robert Lomax) Hailing from Evanston, Illinois, James Olson, after graduating from Northwestern University, plus governmental duty for Uncle Sam, emerged from Lee Strasberg's Actors' Studio as one of the most promising young men of his class. At the American Shakespeare Festival Theatre, Stratford, Connecticut, he was Demetrius in "A Midsummer Night's Dream" with June Havoc and Florizel in "The Winter's Tale." On Broadway he was featured in "The Young and Beautiful," "The Sin of Pat Muldoon" and recently in "J.B." On the screen he had important roles in "The Strange One" and "The Sharkfighters." TV gave him the Mickey Mantle role in "The Life of Mickey Mantle."

CHASE CROSBY (Kay Fletcher) As the English girl in love with the young Canadian in "Suzie Wong," Chase Crosby, a daughter of the South, Tennessee to be exact, graduated from Columbia University with both a BA and MA degree and made her debut in Shaw's "Heartbreak House." Broadway saw her shortly after in "All My Sons" and following a stint in repertoire covering current attractions, Kay was featured in an imposing cross-section of Shakespeare, "The Tempest," "Midsummer Night's Dream," "Twelfth Night," "Henry V" and "Henry VIII." She was Ellen Wilson in TV's serial "Today Is Ours" and screen-addicts saw her in "New Girl."

BERNARD WU (Ah Tong) With this production, Mr. Wu made his Broadway debut. A native of Hong Kong, he started his acting career in Canada at the University of Manitoba with the Rainbow Players. He joined the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation and later helped to form "Theatre 77." Two years ago he came to New York and has had featured roles in TV and screen productions. Last seen in "Auntie Mame," Mr. Wu is now adapting a Chinese play for the American Theatre.

WAYNE WILSON (George O'Neill) Made his first appearance in "East Is West." He was in Arthur Miller's "The Crucible," followed by "Golden Arm" and "Arsenic and Old Lace." Moviegoers will remember him in "Hatful of Rain," "Face in the Crowd" and "Stage Struck." He has been featured on TV with Ray Bolger, Ralph Bellamy and others.

Who's Who In The Cast

PARKE PERINE (British Sailor) Becoming interested in the theatre while studying for his law degree in political science, Parke Perine realized that the stage was his calling and changed to the White Barn Playhouse in the Poconos, also playing Christ in the Passion Play. Had 13 weeks in "Brenner" series as skinniest cop in New York City.

FLAVIA HSU KINGMAN (Wednesday Lulu) Flavia Hsu Kingman was born in Shanghai, China. She grew up in New York and attended Walton High School there before moving to San Francisco, where she appeared on television, won several bathing beauty contests and was a contender for the title of Miss San Francisco. Her aunt, Zaya Kingman Spellman, is a noted concert singer and her grandfather was a high-ranking member of China's diplomatic corps, pre-Red China.

JOSHUA LOGAN One of the theatres' most versatile and energetic personalities, Mr. Logan has given his generation some of its finest hours in theatre. Either as director, author or producer, and sometimes functioning in two or three of those roles at the same time, he has been responsible for such notable productions as "On Borrowed Time," "Annie Get Your Gun," "South Pacific," "Mister Roberts," "Wish You Were Here," "Fanny," "Picnic," "By Jupiter," "Finian's Rainbow," "Happy Birthday" and, most recently, "Middle of the Night." For the past few years, he has concentrated on films, directing four movies that have acquired a goodly measure of success: "Picnic," "Bus Stop," "Sayonara" and "South Pacific." He was born in Texarkana, Texas, and was educated at Culver Military Academy, and at Princeton University where he was one of the founders of the University Players. He is married to actress Nedda Harrigan. For the future, Mr. Logan has organized a motion-picture company, Mansfield Productions, which has already scheduled a series of movies for production. Last season on Broadway saw Mr. Logan as co-producer with David Merrick of "Epitaph for George Dillon."

COMING ATTRACTION

"The Deadly Game" will be directed by William Gas-kill, the brilliant English director who staged "Epitaph for George Dillon" last season in New York. It will be produced by Alton Wilkes and Joe Manchester, in association with Emil Coleman.

"The Deadly Game" is a suspense story, dealing with an American business man who seeks refuge for the night in a Swiss chalet and gets involved in a fantastic situation. The events that follow should chill the spine of the hardest playgoer.

Pat Hingle, returning to Broadway for his first appearance since his accident last February, will play the role of the American. Starred on Broadway in "J. B." and "The Dark at the Top of the Stairs," Pat first achieved prominence with his performance as Ben Gazzarra's greedy older brother in "Cat on a Hot Tin Roof."

Claude Dauphin is one of France's outstanding actors who has scored on Broadway in "The Happy Time" and "Janus." His motion pictures include "April in Paris," "Little Boy Lost" and "The Quiet American."

Max Adrian was hailed by all the critics for his performance as Dr. Pangloss in the Lillian Hellman-Leonard Bernstein musical, "Candide." Ludwig Donath played Al Jolson's father in "The Jolson Story," appeared on Broadway this season opposite Nehemiah Persoff in "Only in America."
