• ONE OF THE MOST eagerly-awaited presentations of the theatrical season, Joshua Logan's production of "The World of Suzie Wong," begins a limited engagement at the Biltmore Theatre on Mon., Aug. 1. The lavish stage spectacle features Jeri Miyazaki, Tom Helmore, Jack Ryland and Chase Crosley. Others in the international company of 40 include Wayne Wilson, Mary Mon Toy, Franklin Siu, and the colorful "Flowers of the Bar." Adapted by Paul Osborn from Richard Mason's best selling novel of the same name, "The World of Suzie Wong" spotlights the love of a charming courtesan for a young Canadian artist •
