

July 2nd, 1945

My dearest Billy,

It is my turn to write you a couple of words in order to mitigate your sadness because I know that as soon as you receive this letter, you will have deep sadness. I wanted to also tell you how happy I was to see you again. What a surprise for me when you came to meet me on the Walkway. I have been speaking about you every day to all my friends. But, I did not think I would see you so soon. And today, all happy once again to have you near me, I sadly think that tomorrow you will be gone. But Billy darling, I don't want to write a sad letter but rather the opposite, I am trying to comfort you. Also, I will only talk to you about the good days that we spent together. Even though they were very short in my opinion. Don't be sad dear Billy and think that maybe, sometime soon, we will see each other again. Write me very soon and remember to send me that photo you had promised me. See you soon my dearest Billy. Love and kisses.

Jany