

Nice, August 19, 1945

My darling Billy,

Today it is Sunday and like the other days I spend my afternoons at Uncle's. He is writing and Mother and Aunty are laying on the couch eating candies that Uncle made. This evening, we are going to the cinema where I would have very much loved to have you with me. Only Billy darling, at the cinema you will be close to me in my thoughts like always. My darling Billy, at this moment in Nice, there are many of your friends which gives me the hope of seeing you again very soon, but the wait is very long. Billy darling, do you still go to the beach? Do you see Bob? Billy darling, I long to see you again very very much. Uncle is framing your photo from Chadel's, I am very happy. But Billy darling, you have never answered me about whether or not you could send me a photo of you sister, it would make me so happy. Yesterday night, Uncle and Aunty came to eat at the house, after eating Uncle did some of your impressions, we laughed a lot. My darling Billy, Uncle and Aunty would very much want to be your Uncle and Aunt as well. Would you want that? Yes? My darling Billy, Uncle has finished framing your beautiful photo. He has made something magnificent that you will see when you come to Nice. I am happy and this evening after arriving, I will quickly put it in my bedroom. My darling Billy, I leave you for today. Mother, Lolo, Aunty and Uncle send you their best wishes and all of their best regards. Receive Billy darling, all my love and millions of kisses.

JANY

P.S. Write. Quickly darling.