

September 15, 1945 - Sunday afternoon

My dear brother Billy,

There is long time now that you have no hear from your sister in Nice. But, I have not forget you and to-day I come send to you some news of Nice. Tom has told me that you are going come, may be next month I feel very happy for you and I guess how much you must be glad be able came back and see again your family and your country. I shall have been happy too see you again and shake-hand to you, but may be we shall see again in the States. May be are you sad because you can't see Jany again? Poor Billy. Now that Tom is still left, life return sad and I no feel too good, you know how I am, dear brother, I am sorry for everything. Billy, I think it is not too good that Tom be in Italy alone because I know in Italy the girls and people are very, very bad and I no like because they talk to the soldiers all the time, and they talk to Tommy also. Please, tell Tom, that he must no stay with the bad people, tell him that this is very bad. Okay, Billy? Excuse me, if I talk simily¹⁴¹ to you but I am sure that you shall understand me. You must know, that may be in two or three months it's possible for get married and that, maybe, Tom get transfer in Nice in one month. I hope that every thing shall be O.K., I am happy but I am worry too. And you, Billy, when you get married? may be very soon in the States when you come back. I hope that you get good travelling and that you stay in good health you and your family. I hope too, that you shall always remember a few Nice, the Red Cross and your sister Andrée. For me, I no forget, and always I shall remember my brother Billy. I shall write to you again and if something is not O.K. I shall explain to you and may be you help me. I close for to-day and I transmitt to you all my friendship. Good luck and good travelling if you leave.

Sincerely

your sister of Nice, Andrée
