Dear Kan:

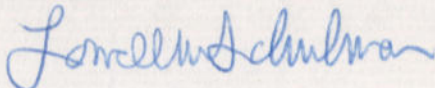

What a delight to receive the February issue of SPOTLIGHT MAGAZINE and to find you sitting contentedly on the cover.

I am delighted that you are receiving your due recognition, both as front-page model, and for the editorial content contained therein. You certainly are a talented artist, and with this editorial coverage, more and more people will have the pleasure of viewing your work (even if only in print as compared to the real thing).

Good luck and feel well. We at Schulman Realty think of you often.

Best regards.

Sincerely,

Lowell M. Schulman
