Mr. Donald Kazama
President
Seattle J.A.C.L.
3042 19th South
Seattle, Washington

Dear Don:

The appalling rate of muggings and attacks on older citizens in the last four or five months in an area of four blocks square has forced me to call Sam Smith, Councilman and Chairman of the Law and Order Committee for some action. Calling police has produced no concrete action or solution. Only one incident, simply because the victim knew the attacker by name and identity, has been made. Some victims have been hospitalized, some attacked more than once. Anything you can do in your capacity, I'm sure will be appreciated by the older generation, especially the Japanese who cannot appeal to the city officials due to language barrier. I, as a citizen and tax payer, feel that certainly, somewhere, someplace, or someone will be sympathetic and helpful in bringing some solution and protection to the helpless old.

Sincerely yours,

George Tokuda
