Can't let it go without a comment because you looked like you were fighting ~~with~~ ^{with} comment a little smiley more than the plot I gave. The plot, of course, is just a framework frame on which hangs the important things like sound & dialogue. Most of all, the loss of innocence ~~within the story~~ is the discovery of life. ^{of reason}

part

How now ^{scarcely} could that the girl was married and ~~made~~ ^{had} ~~been~~ ^{been} got married? and always the muddy rain moves along with the mysterious ^{coming up} ~~coming up~~ ~~could that be the symbol of life?~~ ^{coming up} ~~and~~ ^{and} ~~now~~ ^{now} ~~the~~
~~what is it symbolize~~ ~~The same cost & shadow~~ ~~and what~~

~~The insight into the sister.~~

I'd never forget the sister with her hands in the rain. "Mother said she's a wonder in rain. It's True" and the look that passed over her face made her a woman ^{innocent in Weissen} ~~out of a woman~~ & wonder

The look on the father's face as he listened to his son's first voice a birth cry. "When did you hear the cry?" he asks.

& the moment of discovery coincides with the clouds being burst - the sun's power upon you.
