I have just received one shirt. All you sent to me were quite safely handed to me. So, please, be at your ease about it.

You know that I was reading a book just until I was arrested. That was not mine as you know. Suppose you could find Saikontan with brown colored cover with thickness of one inch and half. I sure need it to utilize the spare time.

Do not neglect to let Masako drink cod-liver oil. Always supply it by getting from canteen, will you?

Keep on going to give home works for Sayuri daily. It will help much.

I will let you know what I need. Don't ever send things which you don't see on the list.

Please extend my great thanks to what Mr. Hayashi has done and is going to do for you.

You will easily find out my purse on medicine shelf whenever you are in need of some money.

You'd better go and buy
some stuffs from the canteen
whenever the food is not suitable to young folks.

I was very glad when I heard about friends by Mr. Tanaka.
Anyway, have no worry about me since you know what sort of a man I am, ha'ha!

Write you soon.

Good bye for the present.

"A book, Saikontan, will be only thing to amuse me."

Do not forget to Keep promise
I made with children!
