

Dear Mr. J. J. J. J.

I received P. O. D. for $ 95 but wondered what for, they made a mistake and send me three doll. instead of one. I think I will have to go return it again.

Today I notice Masako is getting double chin I guess she getting pretty fat, she eats very good we had fried egg something like fu-yu-ka she ate second helping. although she is having little trouble with her teeth so I am going to dentist tomorrow morning. I hope I will not have trouble with her side of her mouth as a little swollen so I decided to go right away.

Jeanie's mother got a baby boy yesterday morning and her father is very happy. Now that mother is in hospital Jeanie behaves much better. And one man 76 years old died in our block but don't know who it is. And her Yuvamoto son died at Blk 49.

Oh! I went to get the clothing allowance check $11.00 to day
I was very much surprised cause
I forgot all about that. Well we are $11.00 richer but not for long.

Well I heard pretty good news to day I hope its not gossip again. Misses said: PA PA is better than Santa so I guess she really love you, and miss you. Take good care of your self and if you want anything let me know.

Love

Lil.
