Darling,

Thanks ever so very much for your letters written on the 30th of May and 1st of June. It really is wonderful hearing from you so often my dear.

Darling, I really am going to have some bad news for you. In a way it really isn't bad but you may not like it so I'll tell you when I come home how. On the other hand it may be real good news but all I can say is that it will have to wait just a while and that a while may be ~~some~~ several months. Okay?

Dearest please take my advice and get well real soon. Get all the nice and wonderful rest now cause something good may happen and on the other hand don't built up your hopes any too much cause everything may go wrong and you may get disappointed.

Well how the day I come home everything will be different and my whole life will change. How when I come home I don't want you to cook anything out of a can for me cause the can stuff and I just don't get along.

See how Fred will be plenty happy when he finds that out about Yoshi. I don't know why Yoshi should always keep anything like that a secret. Funny how she isn't excited about seeing Fred cause it really is something to look forward to. Well I guess she is just that way and if she wants to be that way let her be.

Well my dear how is your little apartment getting along? See I bet you sure have it fixed up real nice eh? Well how I may be there soon to see it some day soon maybe.

How I know just how you feel about Bernice and Yoshi and I can't blame you. I'd feel the same way myself. Yes how I can remember how I used to call your folks mom and dad long before we were going around together. I remember I used to call other old people the same thing cause they were alright and they liked to be called mom and dad.

Well how about the folks of mine going to Mr. Vein and all that is all new to me. I know if Alice has asked you to join them than mother has asked her to write so. How I want you to wait right where your at until I give you the okay. I don't want you to work in camp and I'll let you know when I want you to leave. From now on I'm going to tell you what will be best and please don't argue with me. Is that clear enough for you or should I go into more details. Well for now I'll leave it just the way it is and how please
