Darling,

Well I really can't think of much to write but just thought I'd write a little.

Didn't do much except had another physical again and was suppose to get or rather have an interview but it was canceled until tomorrow. The interview are just the same thing as being reclassified. Outside of that I didn't do anything. Went to see a movie tonight and it was swell for a change.

Now it looks as if I'll have to send you all the extra cloths which I brought from there. My bags hasn't come in as yet and my cloths are sure dirty. Sure hope that they'll come in soon so I can change my cloths.

How will you give Sue my best regards and please send me her husband's address. I would like to write him and etc. Please give everyone else my best regards too.

Well how they drill and everything around here just like they do in Texas. I sure am tired of all this kind of training and may try to transfer to Shelby! Oh well they may send me there even if I don't ask for it.

Dearest will you please send me Kai's address so I can write to her. I would like to write and tell her that you and the baby are planning to go to Denver and everything. I thought her address was 1108 22nd st. but I'm not sure so I'll just wait till I hear from you. Gee I bet she sure will be surprised to hear from me eh.

Now please forgive me for always forgetting things so please send me your size in dresses. Don't think that I'm going to get generous and buy you a dress but I would like to keep it on a note in my wallet just in case.

Wailing words really can not describe how much I love and miss you. Sure do miss Yuri. I really do wonder how she feels about me. Oh well I guess she doesn't know anything as yet cause I haven't been with her long enough.

Oo dearest sure do pray that we can be together real soon again. How does Yuri like the buggy we got her? She probably is tired of it by now eh? Well I hope that I can get her something good someday.

Dearest am going to have the insurance and allotment made out in a few days again. they are going to call me when they are ready. Now I can assure you that from now on I am going to save all I can just so we can save. Please don't doubt me for cause I really do mean it this time. You and Yuri really mean everything to me dearest. Love and miss you both with all my heart

We for sure do pray that we can have another child soon. No doubt you are tired of hearing me say it all the time eh? Well for I really can't help it cause it is just the way I feel.
Now it will make me so happy when you say that we will. Oh well for I guess I'll just have to wait until the next time eh.
if it hasn't happened as yet.

Well how I always want you to remember that I'll always love you. I am constantly thinking of you and Yuri and something else too. Sure hope it will come true how.

Dearest am going to close for tonight but will write soon again. How please take the best of care of yourself and Yuri. Please be good how. Love you sweetheart. Miss you - always yours,

Hubby Alvin
