

12 ~~th~~ June 1945

Darling,

Well how you my dear? Pray that this letter finds you and Aileen in the best of health my dear. As for myself I can't say much except that I love and miss you both with all my heart. I still am homesick my dear and pray that I'll be home real soon.

Well the party last night was alright except that it got a little rough towards the end. All the fellas in our room came back kinda early. They had some nice entertainment and all the boxing matches were alright. I myself got feeling pretty good so I went to bed. Gee many of them really got plastered and had to be escorted home. Many of the fellas went to their barracks on their own power. Gee it really is a real shame how so many gets so darn drunk. I can't see it that way. Well how you don't have to worry about me cause I just can't take it and I don't like of any of them kind of drinks.

Well a couple of us boys went to a beach just outside of Rome to-day. It really was nice out there how and I was sure wishing that you and Aileen were with me. My thoughts were of you and Aileen all day long how.

Well I sure did get sun burnt all the way around and it sure isn't any to good. I am hoping that I'll be able to sleep alright tonight. Well from now on on my day off we are going to the beach. I really do need all the sunshine and fresh air I can get.

Well anyhow I'll have a nice tan from to-days sun burn if nothing goes wrong. Well all I got to do now is learn how to swim my dear.
