Darling,

Good evening dear. Pray that all is well at home. I am getting along alright so please don't worry any about me.

I wasn't going to write you this evening but something just edged me on to write. Even just to say good evening and good night my dear.

Dearest I am praying that you still love me with all your heart. Your love for me is the only thing that is keeping me together. I'm sorry how mean I treat you and than

expecting you to love
me with all your heart. Marling with me you are the tops
and you and Aileen
are mine forever and
ever.

Well tomorrow will
be another rough day
because we are going to move. I really
must have a lot
of unnecessary things
cause I have two bags
and they are filled
to the top. I've still got a few bottles of
beer so I guess I'd better drink them

2/

before I leave here.
Now you had better
sure your Alvin E.
when he comes home
cause he has started
to drink beer. Well
I guess you won't have any trouble with him
after he get home
cause he will have
you and Alvin to take care of him. (What a guy)

See how imagine I
only smoked about 8
cigarette all day to-
day. It is the first time in a long time
that I've done such a thing. In fact I've

cut down an awful
lot of smoking in the last week. I'm not smoking as half as
much like in the
past. I guess my age
is catching up with
me. Well Camp keep her
I hope that it will
last.

Darling if you can get me a pair of shoes
like I have asked.
you I wish you would.
I know that I told
you to forget about it
once but since we
are going to be here
for some time to come

I would like to have a pair low. Size 6
Now I guess I've asked
you this question before
and I'm going to ask you again. How much
have you saved up thus far in the bank? I believe that if we save or rather you save over a thousand then do
you think that we
can afford to have another child? I should have about $200 by
the end of next month
because I have a
little over a hundred
dollars in my pocket
now and should have about $1.08 next pay day because I didn't get paid last month.

I bought a camera and it cost me $40.00. It use to be worth about $20 in the States but it is worth $40.00 out here. I could sell it for sixty but I want it to take pictures with.

Well how I'm going to help you all I know each month. I know I owe you a fortune and I have forgotten the exact amount but I am going to repay you every cent of it. Please

4/
How give me a general
idea as to how much
I owe you to this present date? By that I mean
all the money you
have put out for me.

Well how I am going
to close for now and say good night. Take the best care of yourself and Aileen. Be good. — Love you sweetheart.

always Yours,
Hubby Alvin

Always Faithful to You
