Barling,

Well how it sure is awfully hot out here. Sure wished I were there with you and Yviri. I really can't explain to you how much I love and miss you and the baby how. I really enjoyed myself and was happy as can be while there with you and Yviri. Sure pray that we can be together again soon.

Well how can't think of anything much to write about but thought I'd write a little. I know that my letters are uninteresting but I guess it's just one of those things. You've got to read them whether you like it or not.

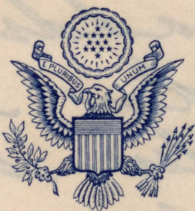

Well how went and got a haircut this afternoon. I didn't get a D.I. and am praying that it'll pass inspection tomorrow if we have one. Oh well I'm not going to get a G. I. haircut unless there is an order or rather a written order saying that we have to. Well outside of getting a haircut we G. I. left barracks this afternoon and that was all we done. I guess from Monday we won't have it so easy. But up till now we haven't done much.

I hope that my luggage would get here soon! My cloths are really dirty and sure can stand some cleaning. Oh well I guess I'll get them one of these days.

Well how the food out here isn't any to bad but I sure do miss your cooking. You really are a wonderful cook. I sure pray that we can be together for good soon so that I can enjoy your cooking and your company. Your the tops dear and always will be.

Well my nails need cutting again and sure wished I were there with you so that you can cut them for me. I really do miss everything about you hon. This war sure has ruined everything. Sure do pray that it will end soon so that we can enjoy our future.

Well I'm glad that I've got the allotment and insurance all straightened out. I don't know when you'll receive your check but I pray that it'll be soon dearest. Dearest the check will come to you there so I kinda want you to stay there until you get your first check. I know if you should move to Denver you can send in your change of address. Well any hoop how I want you to stay there until I say that you can move. Is that alright with you hon?

Gee hon it has been exactly a week now since I last saw you but it seems a long time. This time last week I was on my way leaving Chicago and I still feel lawfully funny inside. I still can picture you and Yuri watching down the sidewalk. Yes Yuri was following me and all that it's just a memory now that I'll never forget. We did have fun together didn't we? Even if we didn't go out and
etc. you're really wonderful hon and I want you always to love me and only me forever hon. You just got to be mine and only mine now and forever.
