4:15 P.M.

Dearest Wife,

Well here I am again.
This letter is for yours written on 29th July hon.

The weather out here is rather warm during the day and it gets cool in the evenings. Darling we could have fun together if I were home. Darling I am forever thinking of the things I plan to do when I get home. We sure will be happy hon and we'll have lots of fun
together. Yes hon you, Nileen, and I will be one of the happiest
family around the country hon.

Darling you'll never give me the chance to do all the talking I know.
Really how I can say everything I want to say in just a few hours
so you'll have some say so hon. Well hon as long as you keep asking me questions of this and that I'll answer them if I can. I may have a lot to tell you hon but they aren't important anymore.
When I come home hon
we'll just talk about us and the future dear.

Alice wrote and told me all about the farm
too. She wants you and Aileen to come and live

21 with them how. How I wouldn't mind you going down there but I'd rather you found some other place. There's too many families living together and there would be a lot of work how. I don't want you working out in the fields no more my dear. I don't care ~~what~~ ^{what} you may think my dear but if you should go to live with the folks you had better not work out in the field. Darling as soon as I come home to the States I am going to have you join me. I need you and Aileen with me because you both mean so very much to me darling.

See I hope that Walter
will come home soon.

Wish I could be at my sisters wedding but I guess she will be happily married to Walter by the time I come home.

Darling I guess I have received those pictures and if I haven't ~~yet~~ thanked you then I'll do so now. How I believe that I wrote and thanked you for all the things you sent me. I could be wrong how so thanks and forgive ^{for} not thanking you before this.

3/ Dearest I am very sorry about not having my picture taken. Now I can't promise you when it will be but I'll have one taken and send it to you. Okay?

Now I am going to close for now but will write you after chow again. I am going to answer all your letters so I won't be behind in my mail.

Love you sweetheart.

Always Yours,
Hubby Alvin

Always Faithful
To You
