1/
Darling,

Pray that this letter finds you in the best of health my dear. I don't know what to write about but I just had to write to you.

Went to see a movie last night and the sound effect wasn't any good and we couldn't hear a thing. Besides I lost a few hour of sleep. There is going to be another movie tonight but I guess I won't go and see it cause I need the sleep. This guard duty doesn't seem to agree with me some how. Well any hoop how I had to be on the ball cause we are going to come home one of these days.

Well how is our little Aileen getting along? Hope she is being a good little lady my dear. Gee how I really do love and miss you both with all my heart. Sure pray that we can be together real soon again.

2/ Honey I've been expecting to hear from you
by to-day but I didn't.
I hope I'll get a letter from you tomorrow. I know that there must be something wrong some place cause I don't get any mail at all sometimes. Wish you would write me every day hon. Some fellas
get a letter a day
but I guess their wife
has plenty of time.
Besides I guess that is expecting a little to much dear. How your letters make a world
of difference in me
and when I don't get any it seems that I just go to the rocks.

Dadling starting from tomorrow I am not going to write you each day.
I've said that many a
times to myself but I always find myself
writing to you and telling you all my troubles. I hope you don't mind my dear.
I really am a funny
guy aren't I my
dear?

3/ Dearest I am going to lose for now cause I just don't feel like writing. I really shouldn't write when I feel this way my dear.

Darling please take the best care of yourself and Aileen.

Love you sweetheart.

Always yours,
Hubby Alvin
