My darling -

Good evening dear!

I love you and miss you. Received your letters written on Thursday and Friday this morning. Thanks dear. I always look forward to your letters.

Gosh, I sure feel warm sitting here in the bathroom. You've been having a lot of rain eh? We've been having very nice weather.

It's sure too bad you didn't get the 3 day pass. Do you know why you couldn't? Maybe you can get it this coming week

end. Now, if you
can come on week-end,
I don't see why you
can't come from Friday night. Is this called a 3 day pass too?
Gee, honey I hope
you can come and see us soon. I guess
we better go and visit
you if you can't come here? Only thing is it's cheaper for you to come down. You know, I knew that if you
weren't here this morning you weren't
able to get the pass,
but still every time
the phone rang during
the day and event
tonight my heart
would give a jump.
Gee, it's too bad you

aren't a little closer
we? You know how.
I sure feel awfully
lonesome and remember
how I ate while you
were here, well gee,
I just haven't got an appetite anymore. I need you more than anything. I don't feel
a bit like working.
I'm so tired. I ought to have a vacation
don't you think?
Honey, is there anyplace
for us to stay and visit you? Gee, but I sure got the blues.
Oh, if only this war
would end, I'd
be too, too happy.
Darling I love you

so much. Please always take good care of yourself hon.

You know Tech. Sgt.
Mike Sakamoto received
a medal for bravery
in Saipan. I'll bet
his parents are sure
proud. Pvt. Victor Hei
is now stationed at Fort Mac Clellan Alabama.
Its a ^(probably spelled wrong) Nisei Combat training center isn't it?

Yuri sure wants to see you hon. Today she told me wanna see daddy. Its really a
shame when a child
can't have their mother
and daddy with them.
Every single day she wants to see you.
She sure talks so
grown upish these days. I guess its because thats all there is here. Tonight she took a bath with Jean. She really was happy and moved around so much that she slipped in the water and really got soaked. I want to see our daughter in the tub with you again. You two are so precious. Honey I won't write anymore because it is getting late and I would like to take a bath and I should soak my hands. Will write tomorrow night if I can. Hope we'll see you soon dear.

Gosh, I sure miss you.
Be good and take care of yourself.
Thinking of you always.

All my love,
Fathy
