

AMERICAN RED CROSS Nov. 2, 1944

Darling,

Know what? It's raining more to-day than yesterday. This place sure gets the best of me with the rain and mud. Well anyhow all in all I guess I'll make out alright.

How pray that all are well with you and daughter Bileen. How is she behaving out there with your folks? Are you soaking them regular and as often as you should? Please take the best care of yourself darling. Take good care of our sweet little daughter and don't ever let her forget me. Sure do love and miss you both my love.

Received your last two letters from Highland Park.
Thanks for writing how sure did sound good to hear that Archie is a Sgt. sure hope him all the luck in the world and I am sure that the folks back home
are mighty proud of him.
I myself feel the same way. I can remember when I used to be one too but that's gone and past now so I know how he feels.

Darling I am praying
that you'll always love me. Sometimes I can't help but worry. I guess I shouldn't but I do.
I love you so very much my dear and miss you terribly. sure am glad that you have aileen to keep a you company.

sure glad that Fred was around to help you with your packing. He really must of been a great help to you so thank him for me the next time you write to him.

Well hon I guess it will be a long time before I'll ever come back to the states again. Gee I sure do hate to think about it but I can't help it. Sure hope that all will be well with you and Aileen hon. Hon I promise you that I'll be faithful and true to you always and forever. I am thinking of you and Aileen always hon. you both mean everything to me.

Marking I don't ever want you to worry about me cause all is well. I always want you to remember that you have a hubby
over here my love.

Well I guess I'd better write a letter to the folks back home one of these nights when I get a chance. I guess I should of written them long ago but writing to you is more important than any.

See the wind is sure blowing awful hard right now. Sure hope that it'll stop raining for a change and get some nice warm sunny days. I guess it won't be long before you'll have snow around there eh? Sure wished
I were with you and Aileen.

my dearest, darling, adorable wife. I guess I've written enough for now so will close. I will write you soon again. Please write every chance you get. Write soon my love.

Please take the best care of yourself and your
Be good.

Please give my best regards to all

Good night darling where ever you are. May your dreams be pleasant dreams of me. I know that the angels ^{above} ~~about~~ will pray and watch ~~of~~ over you and daughter Aileen for me. Good night sweetest.

Love you always and forever.
Always yours,
Hubby Al
