Nov. 25, 1944

Darling,

Received a v-mail and a letter from you yesterday. Thanks for writing my dear and sorry that I couldn't get to answer it last night.

How how is your cold? Sure hope that you got rid of it. My little cold is just about gone now.

Well how Frank sure hit the nail right on the head when he told you what he did. You really are sweet, beautiful, and young. That's the reason why I worry about you at times. Afraid that you may find yourself

dear sure hope that
that day will never

you to let me know

Sure good to hear that your hands are just about well. Please take care of them cause I want you to wear your ring always.

Darling I'm going to write

Now I have been trying my best to get you and afuri a nice souvenirs but it really is hard to get. Besides good ones are expensive and I can't afford it. The little things aren't worth getting and besides they want more than what they are worth. Darling I know that you would like nice souvenirs but to tell you the truth I can't afford it. I hope you'll understand it dear. Well if I can get some thing nice I'll get it if I can't I won't.

Darling I love and miss you with all my heart. You and Aileen means every thing to me. Now I can't blame you for worrying about me cause I've caused you a lot of unhappiness in the past. Now I'm sorry. Now if I should happen never to get back I hope the next guy you get would be a guy that you can trust and you don't have to worry. It could be that you may find someone that you will really love and wouldn't mind what he does as long as he thinks of you. Oh well now I love you and will try my best to make you and Aileen as happy as I can.
