

11
Dec. 13, 1944

Darling,

Well it is rather late but I thought I'd write you a few lines to let you know that all is well.
How are you sweetheart?

How is our daughter? Sure pray that everything is just so my dear. How is mother and dad? Please give them my best regards.

Darling I love and miss you and Helen very much.
Sure wish that we were together now. I really do miss everything about you.
You are my one and only and I love you so very much. Sure hope that we will be together some day soon.

Oh I bet your has grown some since the last time I saw her. I guess she will be a big girl by the time I come home Eh? Sure hope that she will remember her daddy.

How is your cold and your's getting along. Hope you both have gotten rid of it by now. How are your hands my dear? Pray that they are completely well by this time.

Oh I hope that we will get paid in a few days so that I can send mother and you a few dollars. Remember when I wrote and told you that Jim's going to send Frank some money? Well it looks as though I won't be able to do it. I sure would like to send his son a little something but I am not able to get anything. I can't even find anything for you and Yuri and it really does make me feel awful.

 Well maybe one of these days I'll find something for you both I hope.

Dearest I am going to close for now but will write you soon again. Take care of yourself and Aileen and please be good.

Good night darling.

Love you sweet heart forever.

Always Faithful To you Mrs. Alvin E.
 Love,
 Al

Always Yours,
 Hubby Alvin