

Feb. 7, 1945

Darling,

Thanks ever so very much for all the letters I have received from you my dear. I really do feel very bad that I couldn't write you as often as I wanted too.

How how are you and daughter Aileen? Pray that all is well at home my dear. Sure am glad to know that mother is getting along fine. Sure do hope that she will be able to go home soon. Please give her my best regards my dear.

Darling I know that you have worried an awful lot cause you haven't heard from me. How please don't worry cause everything is alright. I am in the best of health

2/ and so forth. All I can say how is that I have been pretty busy and will try my best to find more time so that I can write you often how.

Darling I have planned to send you some money but it seems as though I'll have to have you send me some instead. Darling if you can I wish that you would send me about sixty dollars. I need it for some personal things I'd like to get. I want to get myself a wrist watch and a pen + pencil set. I hope you won't mind my dear but I just thought that it wouldn't harm anything if I'd ask you. Either you would or you won't send it and it 3/ will be entirely up to you.

How did I ever write and tell you that Archie is now a staff Sgt.? That kid brother of mine is doing alright for himself eh? I know what you might say and so please don't feel bad cause I lost my rating a long time ago.
I sometimes wonder what kind of a rating I would of had today if I never would of lost my rating. Ah well how may be one of these days I'll make it again.

See how I sure do love and miss you and Aileen with all my heart. You both mean so very much to me. I'll keep myself safe and sound for you two my dear I promise.

4/ Well hon. His going to close for to-day but will write you soon again.

Please take the best care of yourself and Aileen.
Please give my best regards to all.

Love you sweetheart

always Faithful To
you Mrs. Alvin E.
Love,
Al

always yours,
Hubby Al

Am enclosing a little something to remember me by.
Love,
Al

Feb. 45

[Faint, illegible handwriting throughout the page, likely bleed-through from the reverse side.]

