Dear Helen

Friday AM

Just got your post card of Tues.
22d & am waiting for cigarettes & soon.

I'm so glad you got curtains - whatever kind they are, & that they look all right. It would have been awful to have bare windows with the kantas here. Funny I thought curtains were charged by the pair, not each panel. Anyway whatever the charge, give the bill to Harri & he'll pay you unless the money was his you shopped with.

Hope you'll find Pearl cotton black somewhere ^{even}, would be better than none.

Pinkie talks a lot now & imitates Jaws. Inaoka calling "Sei - gi -" because she yells for him at mealtime.

Bought some books at library & thought one on fortune telling might be fun to have in the living room when young people came. Others are for Harri. I don't know where ash trays, etc are myself.
I asked H. long ago - Feb - March - to put them out.

Comon?
