Dearest -

A Mr. Sumi who used to do wholesale dry goods & knows Mr. Shitata, is going to go to our house. I ^{tried} convinced him there were to stay here but he insisted & is forcing himself on us. Little guy, bald headed - turned me down at commercial sewing school - he was in charge. I don't like him - he's the gutty, slow, molasses type. And I don't mean sweet. Just slow & obstinate.

I'll tell him he'll have to buy own blankets & sheets & pillow etc.

He leaves Monday - friend of all best Am. dealers. He may give you tips on import & export, I don't know.

Got a post card from North Platte, Nebraska, from Papa saying he was enjoying his trip & that he would from Cheyenne to Omaha telling her he was on schedule.

Chicken pox is causing P some discomfort & subsequent annoyance & whimpering & unruliness. Poor appetite, etc. I'm a little stiff & lame in my right thigh & buttocks - which I felt mildly while you were still here. But I've done my washing etc so far. Mr. Sijima made more fire wood again. Very thin & very very neat & nice.

What on earth happened to the superman film I cut with clothes & shoes.!!! Want to see them. P's birthday pictures of cake & candle in it. Suggest you get in done commercially if you still have it or are harboring ideas of doing it yourself!
I don't like the ideas

Am thinking of finishing this roll when P is well.
Wish I had heard from you today - no news 3 days now.
Hope you will write soon.

Mr. Hoshimoto who is papa's friend & who is a cook in our messa quits work today & starts to pack to go to Chicago - to join his gov. He wants to separate his wife (named in July from Janforan) & maybe get a divorce. He asked me if I yrs. separation & non-support would do the trick instead of divorce - in confidence, of course. He stated he said he heard Papa got married, so I said no. She he said well it be when he gets back to Mrs. Harada - so I said don't know but I think unlikely they'd click. He said everyone is saying so - but he'd better be careful too. He said he'd be glad if he never saw her again. They always come after money aside from pay check & spending money - & they fight.
He said he was going to be stubborn & not give money let's sore so long, & leave all to his own child - the one he's going to in Chicago, & leaving her because he didn't like to fight at home all the time. So much for today.

P.S. Mrs. Sato says Papa's ^{friends} & Kenjin have gotten wind of his coming marriage & are ^{shaking} their heads & saying it is the beginning of his ruin if he takes that woman. She wanted to write to him but I said to wait until he gets back & not spoil trip.

Are you already paid? >>
What are your letters?
Let them give you a gratuity? Not say how much
Please!!! We'll be talked about!! Or is it for late??
Let's change for Papa's guests - why not just let them give you a gratuity? Not say how much Please!!! We'll be talked about!! Or is it for late??

Love,
Lorraine
